Brews for Bowser - For the Love of God Brewing Hosts Pint Night
To Benefit the Spokane Humane Society
March 12, 2020

SPOKANE, Wash., March 9, 2020 – Drink a beer, save a life! The Spokane Humane Society is encouraging all beer drinkers and animal lovers to show their support and join them for their first “Brews for Bowser” pint night on Thursday, March 12th from 4pm-close at For the Love of God Brewing in the Audubon neighborhood.

“We are excited to collaborate with Spokane natives, Steve and Dawn Moss of For the Love of God Brewing. This is a great opportunity for our community to connect and try some new beers, all while supporting our furry friends”, said Terena Thi, Director of Development & Communications.

For every pint purchased at the event, For the Love of God Brewing will donate a $1 to the Spokane Humane Society. So whether you enjoy a hazy IPA, a fruited sour or a coffee-forward stout, go enjoy some local beers and support your furry friends at the Spokane Humane Society!
