SPOKANE, Wash., April 30, 2020 – While COVID-19 has stopped the world in its tracks, the animals in the Pacific Northwest need our help now more than ever.

#GivingTuesdayNow is a global day of giving and unity, set to take place on May 5, 2020 as an emergency response to the unprecedented need caused by COVID-19. The day is designed to drive an influx of generosity, citizen engagement, business and philanthropy activation, and support for communities and nonprofits around the world.

"While we look towards moving past these trying times as a community, I hope this day inspires generosity. Like they say, 'a small pebble can create big ripples'", stated Terena Thi, Interim Executive Director.

Your donations to the Spokane Humane Society helps fund medical care for the animals they take in, along with vaccinations and spay/neuter surgeries for the community, preventing overpopulation and making sure each pet has a loving home.

At a time when we are all experiencing the pandemic, generosity is what brings people of all races, faiths, and political views together across the globe. Generosity gives everyone power to make a positive change in the lives of others and is a fundamental value anyone can act on. It's a day for everyone around the world to stand together and give back in all ways, no matter who or where we are.
