Country Store Raises $5,510 for Spokane Humane Society Country Store's Annual Paws for a Cause benefits Spokane Humane Society

SPOKANE, Wash.,

December 2, 2020

SPOKANE, WA – Every year Spokane Valley's two Country Store outlets (located at 5605 and 14705 E. Sprague Ave) host a Petapalooza Sale and fundraising event called Paws for a Cause. This year's "cause" was the Spokane Humane Society.

Due to COVID restrictions this year, the stores were unable to pull out all the stops that make the sale fun for the staff and customers but they still had their big pet sale and fundraiser to help the Spokane Humane Society.

"Our two Spokane Country Stores proudly collected funds from our customers during the month of October", said Michelle Schell-Muir, Director of Marketing for Country Store. "At the end of the month, we collected $5,010.57 and Country Store matched $500 for a total of $5,510.57 being donated to the Spokane Humane Society."

Ed Boks, executive director, with Spokane Humane Society, said "Being recognized by Country Store's two locations, and their customers, is a tremendous honor. The Spokane Humane Society faced many challenges this Covid year, and this generous donation comes just in time to help us care for the hundreds of animals we anticipate rescuing this winter."

Christine Greene, Central Spokane Country Store Manager, presents Ed Boks, Spokane Humane Society executive director $5,510.57 donation!

ABOUT SPOKANE HUMANE SOCIETY
